

Bernard Anthony

Bernard Anthony, a business transition specialist at ConsultKAP, has a wealth of experience in all aspects of organizational development and consulting such as Change Management, Strategic Business Planning and Operations Management. In addition to four years of banking experience with the National Bank of Detroit, he enjoyed a successful seventeen year career with Ford Motor Company. Extensive training and progression within the company afforded Bernard the opportunity to develop a highly transferable skill set which has played an integral role in his success helping other businesses. His last assignment with Ford was the position of Dealer Operations Manager, overseeing the marketing and sales functions within the Southeast Market Area, one of Ford's largest regions in the country. Bernard was responsible for the development of business strategy, managing, coaching, counseling, creating performance metrics, new product implementation and monitoring profit and loss for the regional office and dealer franchise network.

Committed to giving back, Bernard spends countless hours with the Leadership and Professional Development Program at his alumni, Clark Atlanta University. Member International Real Estate Council of Georgia (IRECGA).
